SEVINGTON VICTORIAN SCHOOL

Delivering the revised curriculum,
and the WOW factor!

It's more than just history...
we can help with literacy too.

We bring learning to life

If you've been to Sevington before you'll know that it recreates the past in a unique way. It offers children a profound learning experience, in which all the senses are engaged.

"There is nothing like being in an authentic building with all the artefacts to aid learning."

Christchurch Primary, Hanham

And it's still in the history curriculum.

Key Stage 1

Significant historical events, people and places in the locality.

Key Stage 2

A local history study.

Changes in an aspect of social history.

Developing literacy skills

Sevington provides the perfect context for teaching English, too.

Whether your aim is to extend research skills, or to develop a range of writing for different audiences, the immersive experience of a day at Sevington provides a great starting point.

Here's how we can help:

Key Stage 1

An introduction to non-fiction books.

Writing narratives about different experiences.

Key Stage 2

Y3 and 4

Using contents pages and indexes and combining information from more than one source.

Writing for a range of purposes.

Y5 and 6

Developing information retrieval skills.

Organising and structuring text.
