

The School

Sevington School is Victorian.

That means it was built when Queen Victoria was on the throne.

It was a very small school. There were never more than 22 children.

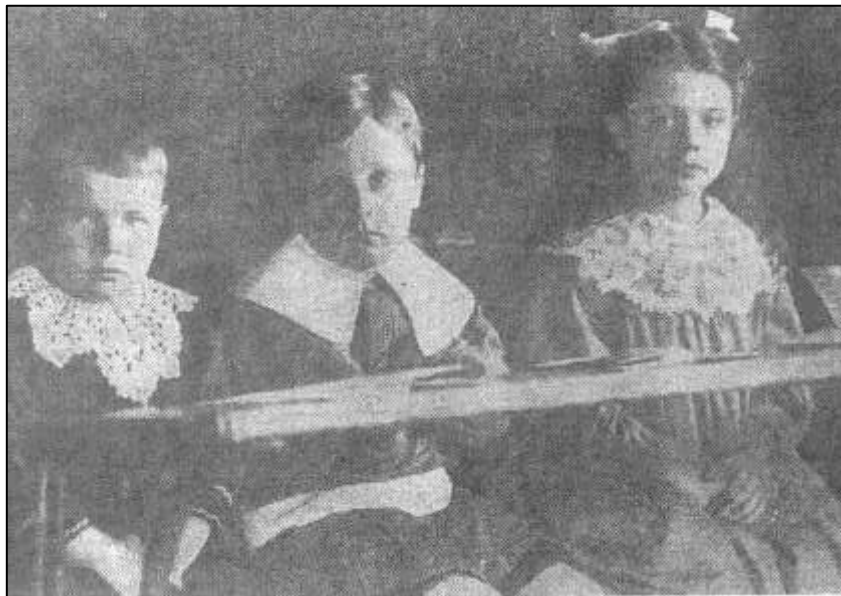

How many children can you count in this picture?

Can you find Miss Squire?

School Group

When it closed down, there were just three pupils. Here is a picture of them:

The last three pupils at Sevington School

Imagine you went to Sevington School in Victorian times. Write about your day. Here's a sentence to start you off:

When we get to school, Miss Squire is ringing the bell and we all have to line up...
